Facts About the Bond

- The District’s bond rating was recently raised to A1 by Moody’s and to AA- by Standard and Poor’s, our highest ratings ever.

- According to Standard and Poor’s, the District’s financial management practices are deemed ‘strong’ under their Financial Management Assessment (FMA) methodology.

- On February 10th the District issued the first $104 million in 25 year general obligation bonds with a true interest cost of 4.98%.

- Subsequent bond sales are scheduled to take place in 2011 ($40 million) and 2012 ($45 million).

- Investors residing in the District purchased about $1.5 million in district bonds.